DUNEDIN, OTAGO

Called the 'Edinburgh of the South', Dunedin is New Zealand's oldest city and traces its history back to its Scottish settlers. It boasts a unique combination of cultural riches, fine architecture and world-famous wildlife reserves on the Otago Peninsula.

Dunedin is fast becoming known for its incredible fashion, street art and artisan values, and with the eclectic vibes of the student life mixed with a bustling business district and traditional heritage there is a wide range of experiences on offer.

ACTIVITY DETAILS

Scenic Hotel Southern Cross has partnered with some great local operators to take your next conference or event to the next level.

From team building to easy activities or grand adventures, there are options for all. For more details or ideas contact our conference team.

Here is a taste of what there is to do in Dunedin and surrounds.

- Feel like royalty with a visit to Larnach Castle, the only castle here in New Zealand, which has been restored to its full Victorian grandeur.
- Do the Dunedin Street Art Trail and see some of the incredible murals created by local artists as well as many from around the country and the world.
- Be charmed by Port Chalmers, only around 20 minutes drive from the city. Visit local artists, musicians and jewellers, and take in the colour and vibrancy from one of the many cafes.
- Satisfy your sweet tooth with some of the local Ocho Chocolate
- Embrace the architecture with some of the well preserved buildings built in the Victorian and Edwardian eras, giving it a feeling of history and heritage.
- Catch a sporting match or maybe international superstar at Forsyth Barr Stadium – the multipurpose and versatile arena – complete with roof to ensure all year round entertainment.
- Get up close with nature at some of the various wildlife experiences around the region, from albatross, to Hoiho (yellow eyed penguin), fur seals and dolphins.
- Surf's always up at St Clair Beach! (just remember your wetsuit!).
- Don't forget the iconic photo opportunity and must do kiwi experience of a walk up Baldwin Street – officially the steepest street in the world!
- Take a trip to Orokonui Ecosanctuary, home to rare and endangered native birds.
- Enjoy a scenic train journey through Taieri Gorge on the "Inlander" – a 3 hour round trip with stunning views the whole way.
